

IS RANK NONSENSE

O'Dell's Statements so Characterized By Fassett.

HIGGINS' RECORD IS CLEAN

Congressman Fassett Says the Talk of Odell Regarding Impeachment Proceedings Against Higgins Is Ridiculous—Reorganization of Republicans.

Elmira, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Congressman J. Sloat Fassett, who is home to spend Christmas with his family, when shown Chairman Odell's interview yesterday in which the latter blamed Fassett for the present condition of things in the Republican party, and the statement of Senator Malby threatening impeachment proceedings against Governor Higgins, said:

"The talk of impeachment of the Governor is rank nonsense. It is much for a Governor in office who is likely to be held responsible for party action to do everything in his power to uplift the party in the interests of the whole people and the entire party than for a Governor out of office for his own selfish interests to maintain the present condition of things. Governor Higgins belongs to a different school from former Governor Odell. Odell accuses Governor Higgins of duplicity. Governor Higgins and President Roosevelt can well afford, in view of their record and the influence of their record upon the history of the party, to accept the challenge of a comparison of records thus invited.

"The ex-Governor accuses me of leading the party to defeat in 1891, but we were led to defeat in 1890, and also in 1892. With reference to the ex-Governor's assault upon myself, while I thank him for his tardy acknowledgment that I am collarless, I want to say that this situation is one away above petty personal likes or dislikes. The situation cannot be changed by personal epithets. It is a question of the integrity of the party life and of the uplifting and maintaining of the party ideals along the old-fashioned lines, where the first interests were the interests of the people and party interests were subservient to those interests and the party leaders were subservient to the whole party."

After paying Mr. Wadsworth a tribute for his intellectual strength and determination of character, Mr. Fassett concludes as follows:

"The President is not interested in this contest for the sake of any one man. He is anxious for a reorganization of the party along higher ideals and honest purposes. His interest is purely unselfish and solely for the good of the people and the party."

"I am profoundly grateful to ex-Governor Odell for attributing to me the present difficulty which seems to be surrounding the consummation of his selfish plans. I think he does me too much honor. I shall be very glad if on that point, and that alone, the Republican party agrees with him. His resolution I consider a decoration."

MUSICIANS COMBINE.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Philadelphia, says:

Under the leadership of Constantine von Sternberg, a well known pianist, all the best musicians and singers of the city met last night, and after a spirited discussion passed resolutions declaring that "A dinner invitation hereafter be considered as a professional engagement."

The resolutions passed says: "Resolved, That the signers of this resolution pledge themselves henceforth to consider invitations to social functions as professional engagements whenever their services are under whatever pretext, requested, and shall charge accordingly; and we earnestly urge all the younger musicians in this city to consider the experience of the older musicians and realize that the promises of a future remunerative engagements held out by these social invitations are seldom or never fulfilled, and we urge all who have the interests of the profession at heart to enroll themselves in this movement."

CHINESE NO AUTHORITY.

San Francisco, Dec. 22.—That a Chinese inspector has no authority to administer an oath was the decision of Judge Hancock yesterday and because of that decision Fong Shew, a Chinese merchant under arrest for perjury, was discharged and the case dismissed. The decision will abolish the present method of examining under oath Chinese applying to enter or re-enter the United States.

Obstinate, racking Coughs that make your head ache, your throat and lungs sore and inflamed, that rob you of sleep until your system becomes so run down that you are in grave danger of Pneumonia or Consumption, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, always the feverish condition, stops the cough and prevents serious results from a cold.

It is the only prominent cough medicine on the market that does not contain opiates or harmful drugs of any kind and on this account is safest for children. It is unexcelled for Croup and Whooping Cough and will quickly cure the racking cough which follows measles and leaves so many children with weak lungs unless properly treated.

Remember the name—Foley's Honey and Tar—and refuse substitutes that cost you the same as the genuine. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation.

Consumption Threatened. C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champlagn, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, it cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.

HOUSE San Francisco, Cal.

This is the kind of a Story for which the NATIONAL MAGAZINE is paying $10,000 TOO DIFFICULT In a Pennsylvania town where the friends of a young man who had been in the army for some time were gathered together, they were told of a young man who had been in the army for some time and who had been in the army for some time. The old lady was at her best on this festive occasion, and she was in the middle of her story when she was interrupted by a young man who had been in the army for some time and who had been in the army for some time. "That is soon told," said the old lady, "but it is a long story, and it is a long story, and it is a long story."
